

Certificate in Public and Nonprofit Leadership for Veterans

www.glenn.osu.edu/veterans

Veterans transitioning to civilian life can feel like they speak a different language than the business leaders who hire them.

The Certificate in Public and Nonprofit Leadership for Veterans brings together veterans who are called to serve in civilian life to learn from each other, build lasting relationships, and demonstrate the value of military experience and leadership to civilian employers.

LEARN MORE

www.glenn.osu.edu/veterans

Important dates:

- November 12, 2021 – Application due
- January 14, 2022 – Classes start
- April 22, 2022 – Classes end

Program designed for:

- Veterans, those about to leave the military, or individuals working with veterans
- Individuals who already work or plan to work in a civilian job
- Graduates with at least a Bachelor's degree or high school diploma with significant leadership experience

Program highlights:

- Deepen your self-awareness about leadership and how to lead others in the civilian workforce
- 12 one-day classes 100% online with face-to-face instruction
- Financial assistance may be available to cover tuition
- Six hours of academic credit from Ohio State

“The Leadership Certificate for Veterans taught me practical leadership skills I put to use immediately in my current role, and opened doors to advance my career.”

“...helped me formulate my personal leadership style, honed my understanding of mentorship and motivation, and solidified my core values and how to express them as a civilian leader.”

— Class of 2021

For more information contact: glenn-training@osu.edu or 614-292-3242

NATIONAL
VETERANS
MEMORIAL
AND MUSEUM

The Certificate in Public and Nonprofit Leadership for Veterans is a collaboration of the National Veterans Memorial and Museum and the John Glenn College of Public Affairs. The program is sponsored by the Columbus Downtown Development Corporation, which managed the design and construction of the National Veterans Memorial and Museum.